

The Disney Countdown

YOU'VE DECIDED TO BOOK A DISNEY VACATION. NOW WHAT? WELL, DEPENDING ON WHERE YOU ARE GOING, THERE ARE VERY IMPORTANT DATES YOU WILL WANT TO PAY ATTENTION TO! HERE IS OUR LIST OF SIGNIFICANT DATES FOR EACH DISNEY DESTINATION.

Walt Disney World & Disneyland

499 DAYS – The furthest in advance that you can book accommodations

330 DAYS – When you can book airfare on most major airlines

180 DAYS – At WDW book advanced dining reservations, fireworks cruises, and tours

60 DAYS – Guests staying at a Walt Disney World Resort can book FastPass+ At DL when you can book advanced dining reservations and tours

30 DAYS – Final payment is due for Walt Disney Travel Company packages

Disney Cruise Line

548 DAYS – Disney Cruise Line books approximately a year and a half in advance. But this date is not written in stone to keep an eye out. The earlier you book, the better the savings!

120 DAYS – Platinum Castaway Club Members (guests who have cruised 10 or more times with Disney Cruise Line) and guests staying in Concierge Level rooms can begin Online Check In and book Palo, Remy, Port Adventures, etc. (Guests must be paid in full to begin Online Check In.) This is also final payment for all cruises six nights or longer.

105 DAYS – Gold Castaway Club members (guests who have sailed between five and nine times with Disney Cruise Line) can begin Online Check In and book Palo, Remy, Port Adventures, etc. (Guests must be paid in full to begin Online Check In.)

90 DAYS – Silver Castaway Club members (guests who have sailed between one and four times with Disney Cruise Line) can begin Online Check In and book Palo, Remy, Port Adventures, etc. This is also when final payment is due for cruises 1-5 nights in length.

75 DAYS – First time cruisers can begin Online Check In and book Palo, Remy, Port Adventures, etc.